Connections

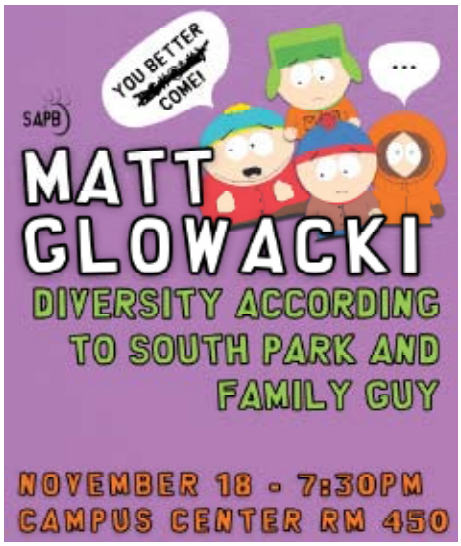
Get Involved at IUPUI!

November 3, 2009

Bill McKibben, author of Deep Economy

Monday, November 9, 2009: 4:30 - 5:45 PM in CE 450

Bill McKibben's address on "Pursuing Prosperity and Local Sustainability" is part of the Spirit and Place Civic Festival. The event is free and open to the public.



Weekly Green Tip

My name is Laura and my commitment to sustainability is to carpool and walk instead of drive when possible.

First year students at IUPUI are making a commitment to sustainability. Read more online at firstyear.iupui.edu

indyarts.org

Spirit & Place Festival

November 6-15, 2009

The Spirit & Place Festival is a 10-day series of events that celebrates the importance of the arts, humanities and religion. This year's theme, "Inspiring Places," focuses on the creation and re-creation of valuable community settings. Each event, performance or conversation held by the festival will discuss the value of inspirational place-making.
A schedule of the events and venues can be found at www.spiritandplace.org. Most events are free.

For more events, check out the Indy Arts calendar at: http://www.indyarts.org

Native American Community Drumming Circle

Saturday, Nov. 7, 12:30-1:30 PM
Eiteljorg Museum

Tony Showa (Navajo) brings a holistic approach to release stress and anxiety from everyday living. Tony, a Sweat Lodge Leader, a Pow-Wow drummer and drum maker, will do his best to help you through group drumming to stay focused and strong on your path. Are you now asking, "I don't even know my own path" or "what path?" Come, drum, and walk in beauty. Students, staff, and faculty are all invited to view Native American artifacts and art exhibits at the Eiteljorg Museum. The museum is free for all IUPUI faculty, staff and students with Jag Tags. Visit http://www.eiteljorg.org/ for more information.
Sponsored by the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art.

Poetry and Word Reading

Wednesday, Nov. 11, 11:30-1:30 PM
Campus Center Food Court

This event will be open to all students, faculty, and alumni to come read poetry or short stories. The event will be open mic, so anyone interested in reading is more than welcome to come and read what they have.
Sponsored by the IUPUI Native American Student Alliance (NASA).

IUPUI American Indian Programs

Thursday, Nov. 12, 9:00-3:00 PM
UL 1126

The American Indian Program will host this fourth annual event featuring presentations given by students that focus on Native American education and awareness. Please direct all inquiries to nasa@iupui.edu.
Sponsored by the IUPUI American Indian Program, Native American Faculty and Staff Council, Native American Student Alliance (NASA), the American Indian Center, Inc., Campus & Community Life, and the Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion.

Questions about this issue of Connections?
CCL Connections is produced by First Year Programs
Stephanie Lee, stemlee@iupui.edu

IUPUI DIVISION OF STUDENT LIFE
INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY
Office of Campus and Community Life
Indianapolis