III. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION REPORT: Chairman Adams called on Mr. Bethea who remarked that today marked a very special homecoming for him and his wife, Paula, to rejoin this institution. The 11 years that he was privileged to have served on this Board between 1980 and 1991 were truly memorable times for both of them. Today was an especially unique experience because they had previously served with several of the current members.

Mr. Bethea commented that he was extremely grateful to the Alumni Association for granting him this special opportunity. His recent predecessors, Rita McKinney, Alex Shuford and many others, had set a high standard of service for this position and he would do his very best to live up to that standard.

Mr. Bethea shared highlights of the Alumni Association’s activities since the last Board meeting.

Mr. Bethea stated that with the new school year right around the corner, a great deal of focus had been placed on the new students coming to Carolina this fall. Alumni Association Clubs in various cities had been hosting parties for incoming students and their parents so they could get to know each other, become acquainted with the Alumni network and provide answers to questions they may have had as they prepared for the fall semester; these events had been well attended and well received. In July, events were held in Philadelphia, Washington, Greenville, Raleigh, Knoxville, Statesville and Charlotte. In addition, events were scheduled for this weekend in Atlanta and next weekend in High Point, North Carolina.

Mr. Bethea was pleased to report that the Alumni Association had met its goal of 1,300 new student members at orientation this year and was approximately halfway to reaching the yearly goal of 4,500.

On September 8, the Association would welcome a new group of Board members at the fall meeting. For the first time, the Alumni Board would include representatives of University schools and colleges through the new Council of Alumni Societies which had its second meeting scheduled for August 15. Mr. Bethea stated that the Association was very excited about the new representation on its Board and felt that it would be of significant benefit to the Association and the schools and colleges as they strive to better serve alumni.

Mr. Bethea stated that he would continue to have as a high priority the realization of an Alumni Center for Carolina. He looked forward to continuing to work with the Board of Trustees and President Sorensen to try to make meaningful progress toward that priority objective.

Chairman Adams stated that this report was received for information.

IV. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT: Chairman Adams called on President Sorensen who reported that on Wednesday evening Dr. Darrell J. Dernoshek, an Associate Professor in the Spanish Department, had regrettably committed suicide. Dr. Sorensen had attended the funeral earlier today; he requested a moment of silence.

President Sorensen welcomed Mr. Bethea to the Board and stated that he had enjoyed working with him in the past. In addition, he had the pleasure of working with his wife, Paula, who was a member of the panel that allocated the monies from the lottery for the endowed chairs; she was a powerful supporter of the University.

President Sorensen stated that the University had anticipated announcing a capital campaign during the Summer of 2008. Leadership dinners had been held around the country and the enthusiasm for the University was palpable and growing. Of particular interest was the Carnegie Corporation’s designation of Carolina as one of the top 62 public research universities in the United States among hundreds of research higher education institutions.

President Sorensen noted that Dr. Jack Pratt, the new dean of the Law School was off to a great start. He had been meeting with members of the South Carolina Bar throughout the state and alumni of the Law School from other parts of the country. He was pleased to report that the LSAT (Law School Admissions Test) scores for the class beginning this fall were the highest in the history of that school. President Sorensen characterized Dean Pratt as a very congenial, intelligent and creative leader and was confident that he would do a wonderful job.

Finally, President Sorensen commented that he and his wife, Donna, were hosting a reception for all of the graduates and their families at 3:30 p.m. this afternoon.

Chairman Adams stated that this report was received for information.

Since there were no other matters to come before the Board of Trustees, Chairman Adams declared the meeting adjourned at 3:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas L. Stepp
Secretary
