I. Contracts Valued in Excess of $250,000:

A. Multimedia Rights Agreement: Chairman Adams called on Mr. Parham who requested Secretary Stepp to read a proposed motion on behalf of the Board.

Secretary Stepp stated, for purposes of discussion, the following motion was requested:

To authorize the University to proceed with the issuance of a Notice-of-Intent-to-Award a multimedia rights agreement to the vendor selected pursuant to the competitive solicitation process in the South Carolina Consolidated Procurement Code. Following the completion of the procurement process, the Executive Committee would consider for its approval a formal contract between the University and the selected vendor.

Mr. Bradley moved approval as presented. Dr. Floyd seconded the motion. The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

B. Amendment to Head Football Coach Employment Contract: Chairman Adams called on Mr. Parham who presented on behalf of Mr. Hyman, Amendment #3 to Head Football Coach Steve Spurrier’s employment agreement. The provision would create a tax-deferred retirement plan. The retirement plan would be funded by annual contributions of $250,000 per year from the Athletics Department beginning December 2008 and ending December 31, 2011.

Mr. Parham presented the termination provisions in the agreement as follows:

- If Coach Spurrier remained as the Head Football Coach at USC through December 31, 2011, he would be vested and would receive the benefits of the plan.
- If the University terminated Coach Spurrier’s employment agreement for cause prior to December 31, 2011, Coach Spurrier would forfeit any rights to the retirement plan.
- If the University terminated Coach Spurrier’s employment agreement without cause prior to December 31, 2011, Coach Spurrier would be entitled to the balance (including earnings) in the retirement plan as of the effective date of termination.
- If Coach Spurrier terminated his employment agreement prior to December 31, 2011, he would forfeit any rights to the retirement plan.

All other provisions in Coach Spurrier’s employment agreement remained in full force and effect.
Mr. Mungo moved approval of Amendment #3 to Head Football Coach Steve Spurrier’s employment agreement as distributed in the materials for this meeting. Dr. Floyd seconded the motion. The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

C. Athletics Department Employment Contract - Raymond J. Rychleski:

Mr. Parham presented on behalf of Mr. Hyman, a proposed employment agreement for Assistant Football Coach Raymond Rychleski.

The term of the agreement was January 4, 2008, through March 31, 2010. Coach Rychleski would be paid $160,000 for the period of January 4, 2008, through March 31, 2009 and $170,000 from April 1, 2009, through March 31, 2010.

In addition, Coach Rychleski would be provided the use of one vehicle.

Mr. Parham stated the termination provisions of the contract as follows:

- The contract would terminate automatically 90 days after the effective date of the resignation or termination of the Head Football Coach. Thereafter, USC would have no obligation to compensate to Coach Rychleski.
- USC could terminate the contract for cause. If so, USC would have no obligation to compensate Coach Rychleski after the effective termination.
- USC could terminate the contract without cause upon 10 days notice. If so, USC would pay Coach Rychleski his base salary for the remaining term of the Employment Agreement. If Coach Rychleski found other employment, USC’s obligation to pay liquidated damages would be reduced by an amount equal to the compensation Coach Rychleski received from such new employment.
- Coach Rychleski could terminate the contract upon 10 days notice. If so, Coach Rychleski would pay USC $25,000.

Chairman Adams called for a motion for approval of the employment agreement as submitted in the materials for this meeting. Mr. Mungo so moved. Mr. Loadholt seconded the motion. The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

D. Employment Contract for Defensive Coordinator Ellis Johnson: Mr. Parham presented on behalf of Mr. Hyman a proposed employment agreement between the Athletics Department and Assistant Football Coach Ellis Johnson.

The term of the agreement was three years commencing January 28, 2008, and ending December 31, 2010.

Coach Johnson would receive annual compensation totaling $350,000 per year and payable as follows: The base salary of $200,000 per year would be paid through the University and $150,000 per year would be paid quarterly directly from the multimedia rights holder to the University’s Athletics Department.
There were four incentive provisions in the contract. Mr. Johnson could earn $10,000 in any year if the football team finished as one of the top six teams in the SEC in total defense; $10,000 in a contract year if the football team finished as one of the top three teams in total defense in the SEC; $25,000 in any year if the football won the eastern division of the SEC; and $50,000 if the team won the entire SEC championship.

The incentive based supplemental compensation payments would be made 45 days after the end of the football season in any year that the incentives were earned.

Coach Johnson would be provided moving expenses in accordance with the University’s policy. Additionally, he would have use of one automobile.

The termination provisions in the agreement were as follows:

- USC could terminate the contract for cause. If so, USC would have no obligation to compensation to Coach Johnson after the effective date of termination.
- USC could terminate the contract without cause. If so, USC would pay his base salary for the remaining term of the Employment Agreement.
- If Coach Johnson terminated the contract, he would owe USC the same amount as the value of his base salary for the remaining term of the contract. However, Coach Johnson’s liquidated damage obligation would be waived if he left USC to immediately assume a head coaching job in intercollegiate athletics.

In closing, Mr. Parham stated that Coach Johnson would be provided moving expenses in accordance with the University’s policy; he would also have use of one automobile.

Chairman Adams called for a motion to approve Assistant Football Coach Ellis Johnson’s employment agreement. Mr. Mungo so moved. Mr. Loadholt seconded the motion. The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

Since there were no other matters to come before the Committee, Chairman Adams declared the meeting adjourned at 1:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas L. Stepp
Secretary
