Return to Open Session

Chairman Jones called on Provost Amiridis to present the Open Session agenda items.

I. Program Terminations: The following five proposed program terminations were presented to the Committee for consideration.

   A. Certificate in Event Management, USC Beaufort
   B. Certificate in Food and Beverage Management, USC Beaufort
   C. Certificate in Hotel Management, USC Beaufort
   D. Certificate in Private Club Management, USC Beaufort
   E. Bachelor of Arts in Nonprofit Administration, USC Upstate

Provost Amiridis noted that anticipated enrollment for the four USC Beaufort certificate programs as listed above never materialized. In addition, the USC Upstate Nonprofit Administration program courses will be moved to the College of Business and Economics to be taught as part of a minor and as a new concentration under the BS in Business Administration at USC Upstate.

Mr. Westbrook moved approval of these program terminations as presented. Mr. Bussell seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.

II. New Program:

    - Master of Arts in Teaching in Special Education with a concentration in Visual Impairment, USC Upstate: Provost Amiridis explained that in the Southeast a shortage of teachers trained in the field of visual impairment existed. He further noted that this program would be the only one of its kind in the state. Coursework aligned with the current requirements for certification in visual impairment education.
Mr. Westbrook moved approval of the Master of Arts in Teaching in Special Education with a concentration in Visual Impairment, USC Upstate, as presented. Mr. Cofield seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.

III. New Dual Degree Program:
- Master of International Business and Master of Science in International Management (MiM), USC Columbia and Koç University: Provost Amiridis indicated that this dual degree program was another in a series of dual degree programs previously approved by the Board of Trustees. Others included the dual degree program with the University of Mannheim in Germany and ESCP in France.

The Moore School of Business was developing and following a strategy of pairing the MIB program with top-rated international business schools around the world. These programs allowed carefully selected student participants a unique opportunity of working together in cohorts with other international students from prestigious universities.

Mr. Buyck moved approval of the new dual degree program as presented. Ms. Moody seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.

IV. New Center:
- Center for Event Management and Hospitality Training, USC Beaufort:

Provost Amiridis advised that USC Beaufort’s Department of Hospitality Management in collaboration with the town of Hilton Head Island will establish this center. The town had granted the amount of $103,000 per year for five years which would cover administrative salaries, office space and infrastructure costs.

The center will work with Hilton Head Island to promote the town as an event destination and to offer specialized education and training in the hospitality industry. Chancellor Upshaw indicated that no additional funds were required.

Mr. Westbrook moved approval of the establishment of the Center for Event Management and Hospitality Training, USC Beaufort, as presented. Mr. Bussell seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.

V. Establishment of a Second Peter and Bonnie McCausland Professorship in Liberal Arts:

Provost Amiridis reported that additional funding had been added to the Peter and Bonnie McCausland Professorship in Liberal Arts endowment. As a result, the College of Arts and Sciences, with the concurrence of the Provost’s Office, was requesting the establishment of a second professorship.

Mr. Buyck moved approval to establish a second Peter and Bonnie McCausland Professorship in Liberal Arts and presented. Mr. Cofield seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.
VI. USC Beaufort Faculty Manual Changes: Changes to the USC Beaufort Faculty Manual were largely considered “good housekeeping” updates to ensure that it remained current and consistent with other changes created within the institution.

Mr. Bussell moved approval of the USC Beaufort Faculty Manual changes. Mr. Cofield seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.

VII. USC Aiken Faculty Manual Changes: Changes to the USC Aiken Faculty Manual were also largely considered “good housekeeping” updates to ensure that it remained current and consistent with other changes created within the institution.

Mr. Bussell moved approval of the USC Aiken Faculty Manual changes as presented. Mr. Buyck seconded the motion. The vote was taken and the motion carried.

President Pastides introduced Dr. Sandra J. Jordan, the next chancellor at USC Aiken, beginning July 1st. “She brings to us a distinguished career of service in higher education and a lot of great ideas for the future growth and continued striving toward excellence for a beloved campus in Aiken.”

Everyone present extended a welcoming applause to Dr. Jordan.

VIII. Other Matters:

Since there were no other matters to come before the Committee, Chairman Jones declared the meeting adjourned at 11:07 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Amy E. Stone
Secretary
