The University of South Carolina Career Center uses Handshake, an online recruitment system, to provide a variety of employer services. Employer services include position postings, resume referrals, on-campus interviews, job fairs, information sessions, and sponsorship opportunities. All database information must be completed in English.

The Career Center relies on the NACE (National Association of Colleges and Employers) Principles for Ethical Professional Practice as the basis for our employer eligibility policy. Eligibility requirements for USC Career Center employer services are as follows:

Employer Directory

Organizations will be denied access to, and inclusion in, the employer directory in Handshake under the following circumstances:

- Organization has a Better Business Bureau rating below a C
- Organization is past due on paying a career fair registration fee for a fair which they attended

In addition:

- The Career Center reserves the right to request a Business License Number or 501(c)(3) Number (EIN) if deemed necessary, and may inactivate an organization’s account if they are unable to provide it
- The Career Center reserves the right to inactivate an organization’s account based on complaints made to our office about the organization

Individual contacts will be denied access to, and inclusion in, the employer directory in Handshake under the following circumstances:

- Failure to agree to abide by the NACE Principles for Ethical Professional Practice” as defined by the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) when registering for their Handshake account

All organizations/contacts utilizing Career Center services are expected to abide by all common legal and ethical practices of recruiting and employment. If an organization/contact is found to be in non-compliance with the professional, ethical, and/or legal standards of recruiting and employment, the organization/contact will be suspended from utilizing the services of the Career Center and utilizing any other means on campus to recruit employees.
POLICY/PROCEDURE MEMORANDUM

Reinstatement of an organization or contact to the Employer Directory will be determined by the Career Center on a case-by-case basis.

Position Postings
Handshake allows for the posting of the following types of positions: full-time job, on-campus student employment, internship, co-op, experiential learning, and fellowship. Postings are not allowed at USC under the following circumstances:
