

Please complete this form and bring it with you to the workshop. Your instructor will collect it at your first class meeting in order to learn more about you and your journalism background. If you aren't presently involved with the scholastic publication at your school, please just answer the questions to the best of your ability.

Name: _____

Grade you just finished (please circle one): 7 8 9 10 11 12

School: _____

City: _____ State: _____

Publication Type (please circle one): BC MG YB NP OM

Publication/broadcast name: _____

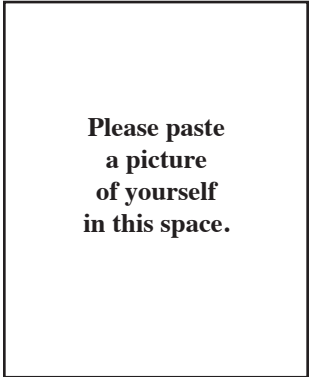

2010-2011 Staff Position (if applicable): _____

2011-2012 Staff Position (if applicable): _____

Briefly describe your scholastic journalism background (journalism classes completed, staff positions held, workshops attended, etc.) or indicate that the upcoming year is your first in journalism.

What journalism courses are offered at your school?

How is your staff selected?

How much scholastic journalism experience does your adviser have?

What equipment, hardware and software does your staff use?

Does your staff have a manual?

Check all that apply to your broadcast program's production(s):

_____ Morning announcements

_____ News Shows

_____ Feature Shows

_____ Newsmagazines

_____ Other: _____

Please provide the following information on your publication:

Newspaper: Number of pages _____

Number of issues _____

Yearbook: Number of pages _____

Spring or fall delivery? _____

What are your biggest concerns about your staff/publication for next year?

What are you most excited about in terms of working on your staff next year?

Please attach a sample which is representative of your work on your staff. If you are not a member of a publication staff or do not have a published sample, please attach a sample of your writing and/or design skills.