

First Annual SIPA Staff Auction Competition

Gather your staff and brain storm. Your task is to think of an item to donate to the SIPA auction. Put together a themed basket, find some artwork, have staff members knit scarves, just get those creative juices flowing. The staff whose item makes the most money wins either two free registrations to next year's SIPA or one free registration to CJI this summer. Put your thinking caps on! Good luck! Can't wait to see you all at the conference!

You've got this in the bag....
or basket in this case!
