John S. Herin Scholarship	Yes	April 1st	Doreen Rinehart	803.777.8555	doreen@sc.edu
----------------------------------	-----	-----------	-----------------	--------------	---------------

Established by Greg Smith, a graduate of the South Carolina Honors College class of 1988, in memory an outstanding accounting professor and strong supporter of the Honors College.

The John S. Herin Scholarship is awarded to an out-of-state student who has completed one year of study. To qualify, interested students must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher and be in good standing with the Honors College. The scholarship is automatically renewed annually if the above requirements are still met and the student writes a thank you note to the donor. To apply, a student must submit a letter to the Dean of the Honors College explaining why they should be considered for this scholarship. The letter should detail the academic work that the student has been pursuing and hopes to continue to pursue. It should also discuss how this scholarship would benefit the student. Applications for the next academic year are due by April 1. This scholarship is for current students, has currently been awarded, and will be available again for Fall of 2013.

Mould/Sederberg Scholarship	Yes	April 1st	Doreen Rinehart	803.777.8555	doreen@sc.edu

Established in Honor of the two former Deans of the South Carolina Honors College. To qualify, interested students must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher, be in good standing with the Honors College, and demonstrate financial need. This scholarship is automatically renewed for rising seniors who received the award as rising juniors, if the above requirements continue to be met and they write a thank you note to their donor. Students beyond their fourth year may apply for this award. However, priority will be given to 3rd and 4th year students. Awards to 5th year students will be made on a funds-available basis. Students who hold the award during their 4th year, must reapply to receive it in their 5th year. To apply a student must write a letter to the Dean of the Honors College requesting consideration for the Mould/Sederberg Scholarship. The letter should detail the academic work that the student has been pursuing and hopes to continue to pursue. It should also discuss the student's financial situation and how this scholarship will help. Applications for the next academic year are due by April 1. The Mould/Sederberg Scholarship is awarded to rising juniors or seniors each year.

-Established by Tracy and Charles Hardaway, parents of two Honors College alumni, in memory of her parents. The Connie and Bill Timmons Scholarship is awarded to a worthy incoming freshman whose major is in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications. The scholarship is automatically renewed annually for up to three years if the student has a 3.5 GPA or higher, is in good standing with the Honors College, writes a thank you note to their donor, and remains in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications. This scholarship is for entering students, has currently been awarded, and will be available again for Fall of 2014.

The Elizabeth Albright Belser and Duncan Clinch Heyward Belser Scholarship	Letter and FASFA	March 1st	Doreen Rinehart	803.777.8555	doreen@sc.edu

This scholarship was established by the family of Elizabeth Albright Belser and Duncan Clinch Heyward Belser. The scholarship is awarded each year to an incoming freshman student who is a resident of South Carolina, who can demonstrate need and who is majoring in the College of Engineering and Computing. The scholarship is automatically renewed annually (for a total of four years of undergraduate study) if the student remains in the aforementioned College or natural sciences, writes a thank you note to their donor each year, and is in good standing with the Honors College.

The Honors College application will serve as the primary application for the Belser Scholarship; however, interested applicants must also submit their FAFSA by March 1st of the year they will matriculate. Additionally, applicants may submit a supplemental letter that further details their financial situation and academic work. This scholarship is for entering students and is awarded each year.
