

University Forum on the Carolina Core (General Education)

12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Wednesday, December 9

Russell House Theater

University of South Carolina Columbia

All USC Columbia and Regional Campus faculty, staff, and students are invited to an open forum on the proposed Carolina Core, the new general education curriculum at USC.

The Carolina Core Curriculum Committee solicits comments on two items developed since the April 2009 Forum:

- ▶ A table comparing the Carolina Core Components and their associated Learning Outcomes with existing General Education Requirements and their credit hour distribution
- ▶ A set of "context statements" that elaborate on the nine learning outcomes adopted last April by the Faculty Senate

To review the two documents listed above, the full General Education - Carolina Core proposal, or to submit comments online, please visit:
