

PALMETTO TRADE AND DIPLOMACY SYMPOSIUM

The Taiwan Relations Act at 45

This symposium features a panel of experts who will delve into the critical aspects and the significance of 45 years of the Taiwan Relations Act. This anniversary comes at a time of new leadership in Taiwan with the inauguration of President Lai Ching-te on May 20. Understanding the significance of this election and the continued ties between Taiwan and the United States is paramount in comprehending the intricate dynamics of international trade and diplomacy, particularly in East Asia and on a global scale.
