College of Engineering and Computing
 Declare a Minor/Remove a Minor Form

A student in the College of Engineering and Computing may add to his or her program of study any minor listed in the Academic Programs A-Z section of the bulletin, provided the minor field of study is distinctly different from the major. Students completing the Computer Information Systems bachelor’s degree program automatically earn a minor in Business Information Systems.

Student Name (Print) _______________________________ Student ID _______________________________

Student Signature _______________________________ Date _______________________________

DECLARE a Minor:
Please list all minors that should be added to your program of study:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

REMOVE a Minor:
Please list all minors that should be removed from your program of study:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Submit this form to:
College of Engineering and Computing
CEC Student Services
Swearingen Center
Room 1A00

Office Use only

CEC Student Services Approval _______________________________ Date _______________________________