FDIB-AFRICA PROGRAM

The Faculty Development in International Business (FDIB) Africa program, funded in part by the U.S. Department of Education, focuses upon providing participating faculty and professionals a unique overseas study opportunity, ultimately assisting the U.S. in its global competitiveness via pedagogy, research and business outreach.

Required travel documents at your own expense for the program include: (1) a valid passport with a minimum of six (6) months validity after date of return from Africa with at least 3-4 blank visa pages, and (2) the purchase of a visa for Rwanda, Uganda and/or Tanzania as needed. Note: Please consult your nearest applicable consulate concerning tourist visa requirements. More information concerning visas will be provided to those confirmed applicants.
