Suzuki Strings at USC

Private Lesson Observation Form for Brand New Students

Summer & Fall 2016

Note: Please DO bring your child intended for our program but please remain quiet during your observation.

All Observation Forms Must be Completed/turned in by Sat, Oct 15th

Your Name:_______________________Date of Observation: ________________ # 1  2  3

Teacher Observed: _______________Student Observed: _______________ Age:_______ Inst: _______

How was the student greeted at the beginning of the lesson:______________________________________________

Was posture stressed? YES or NO Which aspect of posture? ________________________________________________

What was the parent doing during the lesson? __________________________________________________________

Were instructions given to the practice parent? __________________________ For example:____________________

What instructions were given to the student: __________________________ For example:____________________

Dr. Suzuki emphasizes a “one-point” lesson or one key area/thing to practice at home. What was this “one-point”?____

Did the teacher make clear to the student/parent what they were to practice at home? ____________________

What was the assignment? ____________________________________________________________

Do you feel as though the three aspects of the Suzuki Triangle (parent, student, and teacher) were all supporting each other during the lesson? ______________________________________________________

In your opinion, what was accomplished at the lesson? __________________________________________________

Please return this form to Dr. Samara Humbert-Hughes at shumberthughes@mozart.sc.edu or mail to:
Suzuki Strings at USC, 813 Assembly St., Columbia, SC 29208