

Outstanding Advising Initiative Award

AWARD CRITERIA	Inadequate 0	Fair 1	Proficient 2	Outstanding 3
	No evidence is demonstrated	Some evidence is demonstrated	Most evidence is demonstrated; meets expectations	All evidence is demonstrated; exceeds expectations
Advising Initiative Overview	No nomination letter/advising initiative statement	Initiative overview offers broad statements without much detail; Difficult to determine mission and viability of program	Initiative overview has clear mission statement and includes detailed description of the advising initiative	Initiative overview includes outstanding mission statement with strong description and overwhelming details to support its viability
Advising Initiative Design <small>Does it meet these CAS standards: - Established student learning outcomes - Incorporated research and theories - Responded to needs of constituents</small>	No advising initiative description or program design standards included	Some commentary on the evidence used to establish and formulate advising initiative; Only one program design standard discussed	Compelling evidence of informed creation of advising initiative with most design aspects discussed; Up to two program design standards discussed	Overwhelming evidence of high-quality initiative development discussing all three program design standards
Assessments	No evidence demonstrating student outcomes or assessments	Some evidence is shared about initiative outcomes or connected assessments; Still in developing stages	Established learning outcomes and connected assessments for advising initiative; Has depth in thought and articulation	Overwhelming and compelling evidence that supports student learning outcomes and connected assessments; Well defined methodology and data points
Applicability	No applicability to other departments or advising community	Some evidence of initiative applicability for other UofSC departments	Documented examples of applicability to other programs and departments at UofSC	Overwhelming evidence of initiative applicability to other programs, departments, and external institutions with well-articulated explanation

COMMENTS
-----------------	--

___ /12
---------

(Adapted from NACADA Global Awards rubrics)