Meeting Information

Senators must sign in at tables outside the meeting room

Departments (or other units) must notify the faculty senate office in advance of the meeting if a substitute for an elected senator will be present

Senators should try to attend all meetings of the Faculty Senate. Minimally, Senators are expected to attend a majority of meetings. Because the Faculty Senate is a deliberative body, active participation requires physical presence at the site of the meeting. [FM, p.12]

Senators are required to sit in the middle section of the room, in order to facilitate counting

Senators must identify themselves
