All in the Family: McNair Alumna and parent nominated for theatre awards

. Memphis Theatre Awards, Ostrander nominees, include Jamie Boller, McNair Scholar 2016, who was nominated for Best Leading Actress in a Drama (Shakespeare in Love, Playhouse on the Square) and Excellence in Direction of a Drama (Eurydice). Additionally, her father Greg Boller, was nominated for Best Leading Actor in a Drama for All Saints in the Old Colony. The younger Boller and McNair Scholar is working for the Olney Theatre Centre in Olney, MD, outside of DC, as a National Player. It is the longest running touring company in the country, and this year celebrates their 70th tour. Ten players will be touring the country with three shows, teaching classes around the country, and handling all technical work. The three shows are Twelfth Night (Boller is playing Olivia), The Crucible (Abigail/Hathorne), and Around the World in 80 Days (Ensemble).
