

SUMMER COMPENSATION MATRIX

For detailed guidelines on how to complete the summer compensation form, please refer to the Summer Instructions.

Instruction	Criteria	Work Hours/Weeks	Earnings	Policy	Procedures	Variances
FTE	All FTE Faculty working 9, 10.5 or 11 month pay basis are eligible for summer instruction	9-month faculty pay basis is always 8/16 - 5/15, so they are eligible for summer instruction between 5/16 - 8/15. 10.5 and 11 month faculty are available for summer instruction based on their contractual time defined in their most recent appointment letter. For example, an 11-month faculty appointed 7/1 would be off contract 6/1-6/30; a 10.5 month faculty appointed 7/1 would be off contract 5/16 - 6/30.	Earnings per course/credit hour is determined at the college level. The total amount of compensation (Instruction and ECOM) for FTE faculty cannot exceed 33.3 - 33.85% for 9 month faculty, depending on the number of work days available during 5/16 - 8/15. Summer 2021 has 65 working days from 5/16 - 8/15.	HR 1.81	Summer Compensation Instructions and Form .	Exceptions to summer instruction earnings or total summer compensation earnings (Instruction and ECOM) require approval from the Provost on the Columbia campus, the Provost/Academic Affairs Officer for comprehensive campuses, or the Chancellor for Palmetto College.
Adjunct Faculty	All adjunct faculty who taught in the immediately preceding Spring academic term are to be paid via Summer Compensation form (for ACA purposes).	No restrictions	Earnings per course/credit hour is determined at the college level.		Summer Compensation Instructions and Form .	Adjunct faculty who did not teach in the immediately preceding Spring should be hired via PeopleAdmin. Please go to PA Talent Management System for additional information.
ECOM	Criteria	Work Hours/Weeks	Earnings	Policy	Procedures	Variances
FTE ONLY	All FTE Faculty working 9, 10.5 or 11 month pay basis are eligible for ECOM. ECOM is defined as sponsored research or other activities performed during the summer months which are not related to teaching summer sessions.	9-month faculty pay basis is always 8/16 - 5/15, so they are eligible for ECOM between 5/16 - 8/15. 10.5 and 11 month faculty are available for ECOM based on their contractual time defined in their most recent appointment letter. For example, an 11-month faculty appointed 7/1 would be off contract 6/1-6/30; a 10.5 month faculty appointed 7/1 would be off contract 5/16 - 6/30. The time out of contract should be defined in the appointment letter and cannot be changed from year to year.	ECOM earnings are determined by the base pay for the preceding academic term. ECOM is calculated by daily or hourly rate and can be full or partial days. The total amount of compensation (Instruction and ECOM) for 9-month FTE faculty cannot exceed 33.3 - 33.85% depending on the number of work days available during 5/16 - 8/15. Summer 2021 has 65 working days from 5/16 - 8/15.	HR 1.81	Summer Compensation Instructions and Form .	There are no exceptions to Extra Compensation pay, which is capped at the rate of pay for the previous academic year. The form auto-calculates daily and hourly rate for computing maximum ECOM earnings. Exceptions to the daily rate are permissible as long as the total compensation (ECOM and Instruction) does not exceed the total allowable earnings of 33.3% for summer 2021.
