The Phi Beta Kappa Society

The Nation's Most Prestigious Academic Honor Society

EST. 1776
Phi Beta Kappa
Alpha Chapter of South Carolina
Chartered in 1926

Phi Beta Kappa is the nation’s most prestigious undergraduate honor society. It is recognized across all academic disciplines as a mark of excellence and academic distinction. It is a symbol of integrity and scholarly achievement in the liberal arts and sciences.

Phi Beta Kappa is both the oldest and the most prestigious undergraduate honor society in the country. Only 10% of colleges in the United States have earned the right to have chapters, and just over 1% of all college students are elected each year.

To be invited, a student must have more than a high grade point average. Chapter members review the academic records of the top 10% of the class to ensure that most credits are earned in the liberal arts and sciences, in a broad array of subjects, and at an advanced level.
History of Phi Beta Kappa

• Phi Beta Kappa are initial letters of Greek words meaning “Love of Wisdom—the Helmsman of Life”

• Founded in 1776 at William and Mary College

• Yale Chapter established in 1780, Harvard 1781, Dartmouth 1787

• Membership extended to women in 1875

• First African American member elected in 1877

• Alpha of South Carolina established at UofSC in 1926

• Today, there are 290 chapters and nearly 50 alumni associations across the country - In SC, there are also chapters at Wofford, Clemson and Furman, and a Lowcountry Association
Why strive to be elected?

There are a number of meaningful and worthwhile honor societies on campus that students will receive invitations to join during their college careers. Each one deserves serious consideration.

An invitation to join Phi Beta Kappa, however, is an honor on a completely different tier.

Acceptance of membership in Phi Beta Kappa ensures lifelong recognition of integrity, scholarly achievement, and excellence. No other undergraduate academic honor can confer such distinction.
In Good Company

Joining Phi Beta Kappa places you among the ranks of 17 U.S. Presidents, 42 U.S. Supreme Court Justices, over 150 Nobel Laureates, and celebrated artists, activists, athletes, and innovators in every career field.
Phi Beta Kappa Awards at USC

The George A. Wauchope Award is presented to the senior PBK member with the highest GPA and the most liberal course hours. Professor Wauchope penned the alma mater in 1911, and was instrumental in the establishment of the Alpha Chapter of South Carolina Phi Beta Kappa in 1926, and was its first president.

Freshman Awards are presented to students who have, in addition to other criteria, maintained a 4.0 GPA throughout their freshman year.
