WHO CAN USE AMAZON BUSINESS?

- University procurement cardholders only:
 - This program is not intended for all employees (e.g. temporary staff, graduate students, etc.).
- Only cardholders that have been properly approved and trained under the procurement card policies and procedures are eligible to be added to Amazon Business.

HOW DO I GET ADDED TO AMAZON BUSINESS?

- If you were invited during the initial launch, check your inbox (including junk folder) for an email sent by business@amazon.com
- If no email is found, send a request to purchasing@sc.edu to be invited to the central account, and an invitation will be sent to your university email address.
- Newly approved cardholders may also send a request to be added to Amazon Business.
- Activate your account and begin shopping.
 - Troubleshooting guidance will be provided if you have or previously had a personal or business account using your university email address.
- Add your procurement card as your payment method at checkout.

WHAT CAN I BUY ON AMAZON?

- You should not order products that are available on mandatory statewide contracts for goods or information technology.
procurement.sc.gov/agency/contracts
- You should not order products that are not subject the Personal Consumption Items policy \(BUS 7.05\)
- All orders are limited to $4,999.99 including sales tax. There is to be absolutely no splitting of orders to circumvent this limit.
- Orders that contain flagged items are subject to review and approval (or rejection) before the order can be processed.

WHAT IF I HAVE PROBLEMS OR QUESTIONS?

<https://www.amazon.com/gp/help/customer/contact-us>

The screenshot shows the Amazon Business Prime help page. The header includes the Business Prime logo, a search bar with the text "All Enter keyword or product number", and navigation links for "Hello Select your address", "Departments", "Buy Again", "Today's Deals", "Gift Cards", "Help", and "Sell". The user's account information "EN Hello, James Account for University" is visible in the top right.

The main content area features a teal background with the text "Fixing things is quick & easy" and "The bot quickly fixes your problem, or connects you to someone who can." Below this is a yellow button that says "Start chatting now" and a link "Need help over phone? We can call you." with a phone icon.

A chat window is overlaid on the right, showing a conversation with the "Messaging Assistant • Customer Service". The user's message is "Hey, I never received my Fire tablet." The bot's response is "So sorry it never showed up" followed by "I'll go ahead and send another one to the same address you had the last one sent, OK?". The user replies "Yes, sounds good". The bot's final response is "OK, we just put in the replacement order. It should arrive in a couple of days."

The bottom of the page has three icons with text: a speech bubble icon with "The bot quickly figures out what you need help with.", a person icon with "It fixes your issue, or connects you with a human if you need more help.", and a checkmark icon with "You're on your way!".
