Say good-bye to Adobe Forms application packages.

As of January 1, 2018, Grants.gov Adobe forms application packages will be replaced with Grants.gov Workspace. Federal agencies that do not have their own proposal submission systems and that currently use the Adobe forms package will be using Workspace. Click here for more information.

What You Need to Do

What about NIH & NSF submissions?

At present SAM strongly recommends that NIH proposals be prepared and submitted using ASSIST, since it has additional functionality that Workspace does not have.

NSF proposals should continue to utilize FASTLANE as their primary submission portal.
