Abstract

The “Research Like a Scholar” presentation is designed by librarians to introduce UNIV 101 students to the Thomas Cooper Library and its resources through engaging activities and hands-on learning. The session will largely focus on the idea that coming up with topics for their various classes is research.

Presentation Learning Outcomes

As a result of this presentation, students will be able to:

- Identify service points in order to know where to get assistance.
- Create focused research topics based on general topics assigned to their group.
