Remote Interviewing Resources and Guidelines

Webinars
The Oral History Association in partnership with Baylor University produced this webinar on distance interviewing. It can be accessed on YouTube through the link below.

Oral History at a Distance: Conducting Remote Interviews: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WsSTWkVTit0&feature=youtu.be

Guides and Resources
Vermont Folklife Center includes platforms for remote audio and/or video recording, including Skype, Webex, Zoom and smartphone apps.
https://www.vermontfolklifecenter.org/remote-recording

Oral History Society (UK)
Advice on remote oral history interviewing during the Covid-19 pandemic. A detailed guide to decision making and the process of interviewing from a distance.
https://www.ohs.org.uk/advice/covid-19/

Projects on COVID-19
University of South Carolina
- “Documenting COVID-19 at UofSC”, a project to create a digital archive of the response to and impact of the pandemic.
- “Stories of COVID-19: Documenting Pandemic Experiences”, an Honors College class in May 2020 where students will use oral history to document the pandemic.

Columbia University
“COVID-19 in New York – An Archive of Chronicles and Oral Histories” is a new and ongoing project to document the pandemic in New York.
https://www.ccohr.incite.columbia.edu/covid19-oral-history-project
Indiana Historical Society

Telling Your Story: Documenting COVID-19 in Indiana