“Madeira to Moonshine: A Drinking History of South Carolina.”

Dr. Faye Jensen CEO, South Carolina Historical Society

From colonial shrubs to Dubose Heywards' champagne punch, this presentation focuses on the alcoholic beverages popular in South Carolina through the years. Dr. Jensen discusses the everyday drinking habits of the common man as well as the appeal of finer imported wines to the colonial aristocracy. Jensen draws from the rich archives of the South Carolina Historical Society for specific examples and explains that the state's drinking habits offer an interesting window to its past.

Please direct any questions or comments regarding the series to Brent Burgin at 803-313-7063 or wbburgin@sc.edu. Mr. Burgin welcomes suggestions and ideas for future talks and speakers.
