

Bachelor of Arts in Communication

Frequently Asked Questions

Prospective students often ask how long the Bachelor of Arts in Communication takes to complete, what the program costs and if financial aid is available, and if the degree is awarded through UofSC Aiken.

You can find answers to these questions below.

- Completion time varies based on already accumulated general education credits and courses necessary to complete the major concentration. The degree requires 120 credit hours. It is up to the student and advisor to decide the appropriate number of hours to take each semester.
- Students are eligible to receive applicable federal and state financial aid assistance. Current fees and tuition rates can be viewed at www.palmettocollege.sc.edu.
- The degree is awarded by the University of South Carolina Aiken and meets the same rigorous standards and accreditation as any traditional degree from UofSC.

Prepare for Your Future

The UofSC Aiken Bachelor of Arts in Communication is designed to help students become ethical and competent communicators who can use their knowledge of communication to enhance their individual and professional development, improve their personal relationships, and effectively serve their communities.

Why should I complete a bachelor's degree in communication?

Through a bachelor's degree in communication, students learn the practical application of the theory and art of communication. Through coursework that focuses on visual, multimedia, written, spoken and interpersonal communication, students are well prepared for the competitive job market. Graduates can enter into fields such as sales, marketing, media, customer relations, public relations, law, and healthcare.

Why should I complete a degree online from UofSC Aiken through Palmetto College?

The programs are developed and taught by the same professors who teach statewide in the nationally renowned UofSC system. As a Palmetto College student, you'll have access to the university's academic resources. And best of all, when you're finished with the program, you'll graduate with a degree from a top-notch, nationally recognized university!

For More Information

USC Palmetto College Enrollment Services

University of South Carolina,
Palmetto College
1600 Hampton Street,
Columbia, SC 29208

Email: pcadmissions@sc.edu
Phone: 888-801-1053

UNIVERSITY OF
South Carolina
PALMETTO COLLEGE

palmettocollege.sc.edu

The history of communication is the history of humankind itself. Throughout human history, people have relied on spoken and written communication to teach, build relationships, conduct business transactions, and much more.

Our communications degree encompasses skills which are required in a variety of sectors, whether that is government, human resources, digital marketing, education, mediation and non-profit.

Prerequisites and Requirements

To apply for this online degree program, students must have:

- 45-60 credit hours from a regionally accredited institution
- Minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA
- Completion of the following courses:
 - Composition
 - Composition and Literature
 - Public Speaking or Interpersonal Communication
 - Natural Science with a Lab
 - Two Social or Behavioral Science courses
 - Humanities
 - World Civilization
 - American History or American Government

Curriculum

Our communication program will teach you how to closely examine communication processes in interpersonal relationships, small group and public settings and within organizations, in cultures, and in the mass media.

The curriculum includes coursework in the following disciplines:

- Public Communications - 6 credit hours
- Methodology - 6 credit hours
- Writing and Visual Communications - 6 credit hours
- Cultural Impact - 6 credit hours
- Communications Specialization - 3 credit hours