SLIS MLIS to attend professional meetings, conferences, workshops, or training sessions. (For graduate students only.)

Must be accepted into the MLIS program. Employed by the Florence County Library System. (For graduate students only.)

The scholarship will be awarded by the Scholarship Committee of the School of Library and Information Science and will award the scholarship to a student(s) enrolled in the MLIS program and seeking and MLIS degree pursuing NCATE certification as a school library media specialist. (For graduate students only.)

The purpose of the fund is to provide support for the research work of doctoral students in the SLIS. Support may be used for a variety of research needs including, but not limited to: travel expenses for research purposes; conference attendance for presenting research results; purchasing needed data/information, software, equipment, or consulting help for research; essential publication expenses. Awarded to students who are enrolled in at least three (3) hours. Requests for support should be made to the Director of SLIS. Funding decisions will be made by the Director in consultation with the Director's designated faculty and the Doctoral Studies Committee. The Foundation or its appointee(s) shall have full authority and discretion to invest the funds contributed by Donor either separately or pooled with other funds held in its fiduciary capacity. Fees may be assessed to pay for investment management and administration of the Fund. The amount distributable will be in accordance with the Foundation's spending policy. Excess income may be added to the principal.

Wayne S. Yenawine

Require 9 hours per semester. (For graduate students only.)

Dewey Decimal Memorial Scholarship Fund

The Dewey Decimal Memorial Scholarship will be awarded by the University of South Carolina School of Library and Information Science Scholarship Committee to a worthy sophomore or junior majoring in library and/or information science. The candidate will exemplify attributes of integrity, character and leadership consistent with the highest values of the University.
