

The Hand-Off: Transitioning Student Support from Admissions to FYE

Through engagement in this discussion participants will...

1. Understand the role of admissions in the student transition and retention process
  2. Identify areas where the role of admissions and first-year experience offices overlap
  3. Discuss strategies to work collaboratively with admissions during the summer and first fall term
  4. Create action items for their institution to strengthen the relationship between first-year experience and admissions
-

Starter Questions

When does the “hand-off” take place at your institution?

Why does the “hand-off” take place at the time? Is it official?

How does admissions assist after enrollment?

What are the instances where admissions and FYE overlap when working with new students?

Opportunities to Collaborate

What can FYE do to help admissions with the recruitment process?

What can admissions do to help you transition/retain students?

---

New Ideas and Action Items to Bring Back to Campus

Katherine Hilson

AD of Student Programs & Communication
Undergraduate Admissions
hilsonk@mailbox.sc.edu

Elaine Lewis

AD of Undergraduate Programs
Biological Sciences
elainel@vt.edu