

Questions for Sophomore Advisees

Introductory Questions

What are you most excited about for the coming semester? What are you apprehensive about?
How do you see yourself as a sophomore, what has changed about you?
How has your friendship circle changed? How will you expand your connections across campus?
What have you learned about yourself as a result of a mistake/challenge?

Academic/Major Exploration

What did you discover you liked academically, not like?
Tell me about aspects of your academic experience that you are proudest of? Why is this?
Have you decided on a major? How did you decide?
What is your commitment level to your major?
What is the role of your academic minor?
Explain the process of officially declaring a major with the Registrar's Office
Make referrals to Career Exploration & Development for Career Assessment (connection to major)

Campus Involvement

Think of the curricular and co-curricular as a whole. How are you making connections between what you are learning in the classroom and your experiences across campus?
What have you decided to make a commitment to in terms of your campus involvement?
What is your time commitment to non-academic aspects of your Denison Experience?
Refer students to CLIC (Campus Leadership & Involvement Center, 3rd Floor Slayter)

Career Exploration

Have you visited the office of Career Exploration and Development? What resources do you believe you will take advantage of to assist you in your career preparation?
What steps have you taken to secure an externship/internship and/or decide on your summer plans?
What activities or plans have you made that will enhance your career choice(s)?

Advising

What is working/not working in our advisee/advisor relationship?
Explain the process for changing advisors.

Denison Campus Resources for Faculty

Academic Support & Enrichment Center 102 Doane Administration Ex:6666 Jennifer Grube Vestal, Assoc. Dean/Director Heather Johnston Welliver, Associate Director	Students will receive academic and personal advising regarding time management and study skills issues. The Center coordinates the delivery of services, including academic accommodations and auxiliary services, for students who have specific disabilities. The office also provides tutoring in almost all academic subjects. All tutors are Denison students selected by faculty and tutoring is free of charge so please, take advantage. To request a tutor online, go to http://www.denison.edu/requestatutor
--	--

Campus Leadership and Involvement Center 310 Slayter Union Ex.6394 Natalie Pariano, Director Aimee Maczko, Associate Director	The Campus Leadership & Involvement Center exists to foster and support student opportunities for learning, leadership, community-building, and creative expression beyond the classroom. There are more than 160 organizations on campus that are a vital part of the Denison University Community. The Campus Leadership & Involvement Center team recognizes the importance of co-curricular activities as a key part of the college experience. Active participation in organizations provides opportunities for the development of leadership skills, social interaction and the opportunity to demonstrate creativity and responsibility, all while having some fun. http://www.denison.edu/campuslife/studentactivities/
Career Exploration & Development 306 Burton D. Morgan Ex.6656 Kathleen I. Powell, Director Brian Collingwood, Assistant Director Brooke Parr, Career Advisor	This office can help with a student's career planning, career decision-making, job & externship/internship searching, or preparing for graduate school. Assistance with resume and cover letter writing as well as mock interviews are also held in Career Exploration & Development, On-campus recruiting, internship recruiting and summer jobs are handled through Career Exploration and Development http://www.denison.edu/offices/career/ Email : career@denison.edu
Alford Center for Service-Learning 22 Higley Hall Ext. 6474 Lyn Roberson, Director Susle Kalinoski, Assoc. Dir. Michele Doran, Assoc. Dir.	The Alford Center facilitates opportunities for Denisonians to engage meaningfully in community service and service learning. Through such engagement, we foster the capacity of individuals to understand the origins of problems that face our communities and how education, guided by personal commitment, expands our ability to contribute to the improvement of life in our neighborhoods and the world. Through the activities of the Denison Community Association, America Reads, and Curricular service learning, the Center supports the Denison mission statement. http://www.denison.edu/campuslife/servicelearning/
Health and Counseling Whisler Memorial Hall Health- Ex: 6200 Counseling- Ex: 6647 Sonya Turner, Director Molly Thurlow-Collen, Assistant Director	Whisler Memorial Hall, located in East Quad, has extensive outpatient health and counseling services, including help with mental health issues, substance abuse, etc. Remember that these services are completely confidential. None of the information shared by a student will be disclosed without written consent. http://www.denison.edu/offices/counseling/

Writing Center 4th Floor Barney-Davis Ex: 5681 Brenda Boyle, Director Susan Kanter, Asst. Dir.	The Writing Center provides individual tutoring for students working on any stage of the writing process for any of their courses. There are walk-in appointments, and appointments can be scheduled for more extensive papers. For more information go to http://www.denison.edu/writingctr
Gilpatrick Center for Student Research and Fellowships Gilpatrick House Ex. 6573 Dr. Joan Krone, Director Dr. Jim Pletcher, Assoc. Prof.	The Gilpatrick Center is the hub for programs that promote excellence in student research, cultivate the pursuit of post-graduate scholarships and fellowships, and train students in the best ways to apply for and acquire those awards. The Center provides support to students seeking summer research opportunities; and coordinates all the summer student research programs (e.g., Young Scholars, Anderson Research Assistants, Woodyard Scholars) http://www.denison.edu/academics/departments/honors/
Registrar's Office 204 Doane Administration Ex: 6296 Yadi Collins, Registrar Lisa Davisson, Associate Registrar	This office administers course registration; processes schedule adjustments, and issues transcripts upon request. Students work with the Registrar on curricular modifications, academic petitions, and approval of transfer credit. The office maintains the academic integrity of the Denison degree. http://www.denison.edu/offices/registrar/