- Q: Following up on the two questions that were mentioned in the meeting. Please clarify the clause on wood destroying organisms.
- A: Wood Destroying Organisms Inspections for wood destroying organisms are included as a part of the contract. Should wood destroying organisms be found in the buildings, the cost of remediation will be provided to the University and will be paid on a separate contract.
- Q: In addition the clarification on fumigation.
- A: substitute the phrase "appropriate treatment" for the word "fumigation".
- Q: The last question, who is presently servicing your account and what are they charging for their services.
- A: Orkin Est. $59,100.00/year
- Q: Is there prior pricing available for this contract?
- A: See above
- Q: One last question. Please define what an emergency service would be?
- A: An emergency service would be one that cannot wait until the next day. Most typically that would be for a rodent or other animal sighted in a resident's living space
