

JOIN US

MONDAY
APRIL
11

6:00 pm.
Hollings Room
Thomas Cooper
Library

Language and Conflict in Amazonia

Looking Back on
Four Decades of Field Research

Dr. Daniel Everett
Trustee Professor of Cognitive Sciences
Bentley University

Dr. Everett will be speaking about his 40+ years of field research in the Amazon, beginning in 1977. He will touch upon Brazil's efforts to eliminate indigenous languages and on linguistic conflicts throughout the region.

Dr. Everett is the author of 11 books, including Don't Sleep, There are Snakes, and his latest How Language Began.

A reception and book signing will follow the talk. Books will also be available for purchase.

This event is free and open to the public. Parking is available in the Bull Street parking garage, located adjacent to Thomas Cooper Library.

Photos by
Toninho Muricy

EVENT SPONSORED BY:

Humanities Collaborative in the College of Arts & Sciences
Office of the Vice President of Research
Thomas Cooper Library

Linguistics Program, Department of Political Science, Department of Anthropology, Department of English Language & Literature, and the Richard L. Walker Institute of International Studies.

South Carolina