UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

POLICY: Outside Professional Activities for Faculty

DATE: August 16, 2025 (Revised)

I. POLICY

In accordance with University Policy ACAF 1.50 Outside Professional Activities for Faculty, faculty of the McCausland College of Arts and Sciences will seek prior administrative approval for outside professional activities and report these activities annually.

This policy applies to all units within the McCausland College of Arts and Sciences. Units may develop and implement additional requirements as appropriate for their disciplines. All units will also create and implement a unit-specific policy statement on outside professional activities to supplement this policy. Unit-specific policies are subordinate to the college policy and must be approved by the Dean and the Office of the Provost.

A. Covered Areas

Areas in which either the mission of the university or the professional and ethical conduct of its faculty might be compromised may be divided into two broad categories:

1. The first regards conventional conflicts of interest situations in which individuals may have the opportunity to influence the University's activities in ways that could lead to inappropriate personal gain or give improper advantage to their associates.
2. The second regards conflicts of commitment situations in which an individual's external professional activities, often valuable in themselves, interfere with the individual's paramount obligations to students, colleagues, and the University in performance of his/her teaching, scholarship, research and/or creative activities, and service.

Outside professional activities are allowed and encouraged so long as they do not conflict with the expected performance of duties and obligations to the university.

See University Policy ACAF 1.50. Section I.A.

B. Services Requiring Disclosure

Outside professional activities must be reported in accordance with university policy and procedures. Outside professional activities to be reported should not normally include, for example, colloquia, authoring and editing of textbooks, paintings and performances; instead, special attention should be given to compensated services, private practice or for-profit activities. Each unit should specify activities which should be reported as outlined below.

1. Compensated services

- a) Contracts with any private sector entity (individual, business or corporation), ownership of or equity holding in a business or corporation, management or board position in a business or corporation
- b) Participation in a contract or proposal through an entity other than the University
- c) Participation in a service or teaching contract with another college or university
- d) Academic remuneration noted as fees and honoraria.

Faculty applying for or participating in governmental and private sector grants or contracts must adhere to University Policy RSCH 1.06 Disclosure of Financial Interest and Management of Conflicts of Interests Related to Sponsored Projects.

e) Discipline-Specific Activities

Any additional services or circumstances unique to the academic unit or discipline as identified in the unit policy.

2. Unpaid consulting/pro bono service

The university encourages pro bono work for reasonable time periods and without substantial allocations of university resources, as a normal and desirable activity for faculty. Reporting pro bono work allows the university to properly recognize such work which benefits the university, but which currently may not be reported formally.

See University Policy ACAF 1.50 Section I.D.

C. Procedures

1. Full-time faculty will annually report outside professional activities to their unit head using the University's central reporting system.
2. Unit heads will review individual reports submitted annually by their unit faculty and respond accordingly as required by University Policy ACAF 1.50.

3. The Dean will report annually to the Provost indicating college compliance with all related policies and noting instances deserving review and actions taken.
