

University of South Carolina
School of Visual Art and Design (SVAD)
Scholarship Application, 2019 – 2020 Academic Year

Deadline for Application: Friday, March 8, 4pm

Eligibility:

To be considered for a SVAD Scholarship (ranging from $250 to $1,000 per semester), you must:

- 1) Be an undergraduate and declared SVAD major (ARTS, ARTE, MART, ARTH).
- 2) Have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher at the time of application for all courses taken at USC, across departments (or at your high school or transfer institution if you are new to USC).
- 3) Plan to be enrolled as a full-time student for Fall 2019.

Scholarships are available in Studio Art, Media Arts, Art Education, and Art History.

Please refer to the criteria below for information on how to apply for each program's scholarship.

Note that criteria are different for each program, and you must submit a separate application if you are applying in multiple programs. Please specify on the form the scholarship area to which you are applying. All applications must be accompanied by a completed form, located at the end of this packet.

Scholarship applicants will be notified via email as to their status. Please provide university and personal email addresses on the application.

If you are awarded a scholarship through this application cycle, it is only for the coming academic year. SVAD scholarships are not automatically renewed for the 2019-2020 academic year, and you must re-apply annually.

Indicate on the application form if you are an out-of-state student who may be eligible for reduced tuition based on scholarship award. This eligibility will be determined by the USC Office of Student Financial Aid and Scholarships, and is based on academic performance, based on criteria set by that office. Please refer to www.sc.edu/financialaid for policy information.
