POLICY:

The Director of the School of Journalism and Mass Communications will appoint faculty members to the School's Graduate Council.

PROCEDURE:

The Graduate Council Committee is responsible for all admission policies, curriculum changes, and awarding of spaces to the School's Graduate Programs including the M.A., M.M.C. and Ph.D. The committee should refer to the written and published graduate admission policies for their decisions.

Any other matters relevant to the School's graduate students are referred to this committee.
