B-Roll Protesters	“If you dont stand for something,” “How that puts a black man or a white man at stake.” “One, two, three, four, five, six, seven.”	00:00-00:12
One shot standup	“Eight shots, that’s all it took for officer Michael Slager to kill Walter Scott. And giving an inside look at what took place, Feiden Santana captured a video on his cellphone of the fatal shooting that happened right behind where I’m standing.”	00:12-00:25
Dash Camera Footage	(V/O) “Based on dash cam footage, the victim attempted to get out of his car once, and the officer told him to remain seated. After, the victim bolted from the car.”	00:25-00:41
Cell Phone Footage	(V/O) “From the cell phone footage, we can see the victim and the officer struggling and the victim breaking away. Eight shots were fired into his back.”	00:41-00:48
Arrest Report	(V/O) “The official arrest report shows Slager’s statement about what happened. “He took my taser,” he said, after he shot Scott.”	00:48-00:55
B-Roll of North Charleston City Hall and News Trucks	(V/O) “In a recent press conference, mayor Keith Summey explains why the incident is different than other recent national headlines.”	00:55-01:02
Press Conference Footage	“I think it’s because we did	01:02-01:21

	what was right. We turned the investigation over to an independent agency that does not work for the mayor and does not work for the chief. We also then tried to get all the information that we could and turn over to them.”
One shot standup	“Protesters gather outside of the North Charleston City hall to stand up for what moves they think the city should be making and to have their voice heard. The group rallies to represent the justice they think the Walter Scott case Deserves.”	01:21-01:33
B-Roll protesters	“This is what democracy looks like.”  “Lock your door, close your door.”  (V/O) “Protesters hold signs and make speeches that promote the end of police violence. Tee shirts are worn with the words black lives matter printed on the front. Protester Rasheed Ali shares his perspective on the issue at hand.”	01:33-01:51

Interview one shot	“Well I deem this as not North Charleston, and in my opinion, this is Ferguson, South Carolina. As far as I’m concerned, white men use us as practice when they can’t get to the deer. So a black man is just another deer.”	01:51-02:06
Interview one shot	“He should’ve just handled it- if you saw him getting ready to fall over, just go ahead and	02:06-02:18 grab him, put him in handcuffs, and just, you know read him his rights. A life could've been saved if he did not have to shoot his gun."

Press conference footage	(V/O) "Outside of Scott's funeral, the family's attorney responded to the racial protests." "But we're not going to let this case boil down to just racial issues, because it's bigger than that, it's a human issue."	02:18-02:30
B-Roll mug shot, memorial service, flowers, city hall	"Michael Slager is charged with murder, but it is unknown when he will appear in court. A service arranged to honor Walter Scott invited friends, family, and members of the community to gather and light candles in his name. Flowers cover the ground where Scott passed away, where the community can contribute to the memorial, or visit to remember the life that was lost. Reporting from North Charleston, Betsy Bullock, Wave TV.	02:30-2:56
