

IF THE Shoe Fits

Theatre students put on a magical performance

Once upon a time, Sparkman Drama put on the play "Cinderella." "Cinderella," the spring musical production, made the audience believe in fairytales again. The show starred sophomores Mckenna Barlow as Cinderella and Jacob Daughtery as her prince. The classic tale took stage at the Von Braun Center Playhouse and sold out eight shows in total. The show was packed with music, romance, story-telling and magic.

"The dance scene (Your Majesties) was my favorite scene I have ever been a part of over the last three years. I have been in Grease, The Wizard of Oz and now Cinderella and this year just had a different feel being my last year and Ms. Ryan's," said senior Marcus Hammonds.

As seniors took their final bows, so did drama teacher Ms. Sherri Ryan.

"Being a part of "Cinderella" was amazing and it was an honor to be there for Ms. Ryan's last show," said junior Marissa Swanner.

With the movie entitled "Cinderella" premiering the same weekend as the show, "Cinderella" received much media attention and increased the popularity of the play. The vast popularity of the play and movie helped make Ms. Sherri Ryan's final production one to remember.

"With the production of Cinderella, we've exposed to the community just how wonderful theatre is. This play really captured how if you work hard and make sacrifices, your dreams can come true. Each play has gotten better and better and I cannot wait for the new director to take the theatre department to the next level," teacher Sherri Ryan said.

"Cinderella was so demure, and perfect true," sophomore

"Over winter break out, and when I found Prince I was so happy fun experience and sophomore Jacob

Royal
TI