OH, THE PLACES YOU'LL GO...

Seniors explain where they are headed after high school

"I chose to go to Iowa State because it is cold and they have the major I want. I got a lot of money there, and its really pretty."
-senior Alicia Hauglie

"I chose to go to Kennesaw State because it is in Georgia, and that is where I am from. I was excited to go to Kennesaw State because of the people, the staff, and the dorms. I'm excited to be around all of my friends again."
-senior Jeremiah Powell

"I chose to go to Mississippi State University because it was cheaper than other schools. The campus is very roomy, and I am excited to get away from home."
-senior Erica Troy

"I decided to go to Sewanee because I knew I could get a good education with it being a small college. Another reason I decided on Sewanee is because it is not well known in this area, therefore I would get to meet man new people and make fresh connections. The thing that attracted me to its campus is how beautiful it is and how much wide open space there is, which promises lots of opportunities."
-senior Kailey Gordon

"I chose to go to Mississippi University for Women because it is known for its awesome nursing program and I have always wanted to be a nurse since I was eight years old. I was attracted to its campus because it felt very home-y and everyone there is like a family. Also, it is only thirty minutes from Mississippi State University!"
-senior Jayanna Howell
