

Molinaroli College of Engineering and Computing
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Partners for Mentoring in Engineering & Computer Science (PMECS)

What is PMECS?

PMECS is an organization where administrators, educators, students, researchers and professionals that conduct workshops for gifted high schools since 1978

Why participate?

Stimulate your interest in STEM, explore career opportunities, inspire academic excellence, and promote higher education.

How to apply:

Rising freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior high school students with a minimum of 3.0 GPA or exceptional potential are invited to apply online at: cec.sc.edu/pmeecs by 04.10.2026.

*Acceptance is selective and class sizes are limited.

Registration Fee

Commuter = $125

Residential = $300

*All camp activities, food, and lodging is covered by the program fee.

*Limited financial assistance is available upon request.

Workshop Options:

Choose a week:

June 7-12

June 21-26

PMECS Website

Application or payment questions?

Contact Angelia Hawes at 803.429.3489 or angeliahawes@bellsouth.net