Associate Attorney (litigator)
Deadline date to apply 10/30/2018

The Cuddy Law Firm seeks an associate attorney (litigator) to join our North Carolina team. The Cuddy Law Firm is a multi-state firm, primarily representing the parent of students with disabilities under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. This is a very adversarial practice area; most matters are hotly contested. Strong litigation and writing skills are a must. The attorney must possess or be able to develop excellent litigation skills -- writing, discovery, examination, and interpersonal skills are crucial. The candidate must have a very strong work ethic and be able to think critically and creatively through the issues and be able to handle a heavy caseload. The Firm will provide training and support to new attorneys that have the requisite personal qualities.

Required Skills:

- A strong desire to work in the area of special education law is essential.
- Must be competent in research, writing, and oral presentation.
- The associate must be able/willing to work in a fast-paced litigation practice, manage their own caseload, continually improve their skills, make presentations to the community, work in a highly adversarial environment, and work as a part of a team.
- The associate will have a caseload to manage, almost immediately. This is not a back room associate position.
- Dependable, timely and dedicated to the client and their children.
- Must be able to work independently.
- Must be able to and willing to conform to Firm policies and procedures.
- Must be willing to travel on occasion, as the practice has cases throughout the state. Overnight stays may be required.

Desired Skills:
• Special Education law experience.
• Previous NC litigation experience, including evidence, civil procedures, and discovery.
• Trial experience.

Required: NC BAR admittance.

Salary: Depending on Experience

Deadline date to apply 11/1/18

Job Description:
A South Carolina Law Firm is looking for an Attorney to join our team. The person in this role will handle a large volume of cases of multiple types, consisting primarily of Personal Injury and Worker’s Compensation. The attorney will work with a team of Paralegals and Legal Assistants but needs to be able to work and function independently to drive the success of a case. Most importantly, the person we hire will be tech-savvy, highly organized, detail-oriented, work well without direct supervision, and enjoy a fast-paced work environment. This position would be based in our Greenville office.

What you would do:
- Treat every client like family.
- Maximize the value of personal injury and worker’s compensation cases.
- Skillfully negotiate with insurance companies.
- Treat your team members with the highest degree of respect.
- Move cases expediently from beginning to end.
Attend hearings and argue motions in both common pleas and in front of the Worker's Compensation Commission.

Attend Approved Legal conferences to obtain necessary CLEs each year (paid for by the firm).

Requirements:
- Outstanding written and oral communication skills.
- The ability to work in a rapidly changing environment.
- Strong attention to detail and excellent work ethic.
- Outstanding computer, research, technological, and organizational skills.
- Outstanding people skills.
- The ability to both think strategically and execute the fine details of a plan.

Preferences:
- Dual licensing in South and North Carolina.
- 2 to 5 years of experience in a high volume personal injury and workers' compensation firm.
- Experience handling numerous soft tissue car wreck cases, working with health care providers, and settling the cases as soon as the case reasonably allows, always in the best interest of the client.
- A strong desire to join a firm with excellent growth potential, and take advantage of opportunities of personal growth and advancement.
- Willingness to work on partial commission based compensation transitioning to full with an increased hunger for advancement and financial opportunity. Grit, hard work, scrappiness.
