Charleston Legal Access
1630 Meeting Street Rd Suite 106
Charleston, SC 29405

Deadline to apply: 02/28/2019
Email: shelli@charlestonlegalaccess.org

Executive Director
The Organization: CLA is South Carolina’s first and only sliding-scale, nonprofit law firm. We provide low-cost legal representation to the working poor and others of modest means who do not qualify for free legal services but who cannot afford a private attorney. We believe—and are demonstrating—that affordable legal assistance at critical moments in people’s lives preserves homes, income streams, and other assets that keep families out of poverty. We also engage in projects to create systemic change, which are informed by our direct services work.

The Position: The Executive Director is responsible for envisioning, communicating, and leading the continued growth of Charleston Legal Access’s innovative legal services model. Key duties include fundraising—from individuals, law firms, and businesses—grant writing, developing staff, community outreach, and working with the board of directors to plan for long-term growth and sustainability.
Required qualifications:
- have a J.D. and several years of legal experience;
- be located in or willing to relocate to the Charleston, SC area;
- be admitted, or be willing and able to be admitted, to the South Carolina bar;
- experience and comfort with fundraising and grant writing;
- dedication to and competency in serving a diverse range of clients with a variety of financial, racial, educational, and physical characteristics;
- a commitment to our team values.

Other valuable qualifications:
- proven track record of effectively working with marginalized persons and communities;
- experience delivering high quality legal services in the nonprofit context;
- excellent relationship-building skills and experience collaborating across organizations;
- experience in project management, multitasking, and working in a start-up environment;
- prior experience as an Executive Director of, or other senior level position with a non-profit organization.

South Carolina Access to Justice Commission Executive Director

The South Carolina Access to Justice Commission was established by the Supreme Court of South Carolina in 2007. The Commission is part of a national effort, led by the American Bar Association, to expand access to civil legal representation for low-income and disadvantaged people.

The Commission's priorities are to: assess essential civil legal needs of South Carolinians with low income and modest means; foster collaboration and coordination among legal service providers; promote education and outreach on the gap in civil legal services; encourage greater pro bono participation by members of the bar; support increased funding to expand access to justice; support programs and resources to assist self-represented litigants; and recommend new initiatives and technology to expand civil access to justice.

The Executive Director is responsible for:
(1) Leading the organization and ensuring the strategic plans and visions of the Commission are achieved;
(2) Identifying impediments to access to justice and strategies to overcome them;
(3) Developing close relationships with other legal services agencies;
(4) Planning Commission meetings, including sending notice of meetings to Commission members, preparing meeting Agendas, and recording meeting minutes;
(5) Running and consistently updating the Commission's social media accounts;
(6) Writing grants; and
(7) Keeping records of receipts and all monies spent by the Commission.

The candidate should have a law degree and substantial legal experience.
