

Children's Law Center

Juvenile Justice Attorney

Children's Law Center, USC School of Law, Band 07. $60,000 or commensurate with experience. State benefits included. Applications due March 31, 2023, and position available April 3, 2023.

Job Duties: The Juvenile Justice Attorney will coordinate the legal aspects of a juvenile justice grant project that addresses the de-institutionalization of status offenders. This includes provision of staff support to the Status Offender Task Force, development of best legal practices for these cases, and development of training curricula. The Juvenile Justice Attorney will develop and conduct training for legal and juvenile justice professionals and prepare written resource materials related to the handling of status offense cases.

Minimum qualifications include a law degree, membership in good standing in the South Carolina Bar, and at least 4 years relevant experience, including juvenile justice proceedings. Law school internships or externships may count towards the experience requirement.

Preferred qualifications include experience in developing and conducting training. Prefer experience in the provision of staff support for committees or work groups. Prefer completion of the Children's Law Concentration in conjunction with law degree.

To apply, submit an online application as required by USC. You may access USC Jobs Online Employment site at <https://uscjobs.sc.edu/postings/141594>

In addition to completing the online application, attach a cover letter summarizing your qualifications and describing your interest in this position.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities on the basis of race, sex, gender, age, color, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, genetics, protected veteran status, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions.