

PROGRAM EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT SUBCOMMITTEE (PEAS)

Composed of faculty members and student representatives, appointed by the Dean, and supported by the Director of Assessment. The primary responsibility of the Program Evaluation and Assessment Subcommittee is to assure the quality of the assessment processes and assessment efforts of all programs in the School, and to advise on how well the SOM is meeting its goals.

Members serve a term of 3 years. This committee typically meets weekly for one hour each session, and requires approximately 2 hours of reading/prep time (reviewing courses, etc. per month. Chair of this committee serves ex-officio (voting) on the Curriculum Committee, which meets twice each month for 2 hours. One rising M2 student is elected each year for a two-year term.
