

Graduate Assistantship in Music Entrepreneurship/Spark

The University of South Carolina School of Music has an enrollment of 500 music majors, with instruction offered by more than 50 faculty. More than 100 full- and part-time graduate assistants serve in a number of capacities school-wide. The School of Music is housed in a state-of-the-art music facility adjoining the Koger Center for the Arts. The university is located in the capital city, Columbia, a culturally vibrant metropolis that boasts a professional orchestra, ballet companies, theater companies and museums.

The Music Entrepreneurship Graduate Assistant is an outstanding graduate performer or composer with potential as a music entrepreneur/leader. Duties may include assisting with classes, organizing and overseeing events and guest artist support, marketing and social media development, gig office coordination, lending library management, and writing grant proposals. Responsibilities require up to 10 hours per week, and the nine-month stipend up to $4,000 (tuition supplements may boost the value of the position beyond $15,000). Assistantships in music theory, music history, and facilities management may also be available to qualified applicants.

To Apply

An audition is required and applicants must have been admitted into a degree program before full consideration of the assistantship application can be given. Priority is given to applicants who have submitted all application materials and completed the audition by February 18.
