

Graduate Assistantship in Music Entrepreneurship

The University of South Carolina School of Music has an enrollment of 500 music majors, with instruction offered by more than 50 faculty. More than 100 full- and part-time graduate assistants serve in a number of capacities school-wide. The School of Music is housed in a state-of-the-art music facility adjoining the Koger Center for the Arts. The university is located in the capital city, Columbia, a culturally vibrant metropolis that boasts a professional orchestra, ballet companies, theater companies and museums.

The Music Entrepreneurship Graduate Assistant is an outstanding graduate performer or composer with potential as a music entrepreneur/leader. Duties may include assisting with classes, organizing and overseeing events and guest artist support, marketing and social media development, gig office coordination, lending library management and writing grant proposals. The position, open to DMA and MM students, requires an average of 10 hours per week and includes a stipend of over $9,000. For those who choose to enroll in the University-sponsored plan, health insurance premiums will be subsidized. Assistantships in music theory and music history may also be available to qualified applicants.

To Apply

Applicants must have been admitted into a degree program before full consideration of the assistantship application can be given. Priority is given to applicants who have submitted all application materials by February 1.
