

Graduate Assistantships in Piano and Piano Pedagogy

The University of South Carolina School of Music has an enrollment of 500 music majors, with instruction offered by more than 50 faculty. More than 100 full- and part-time graduate assistants serve in a number of capacities school-wide. The School of Music is housed in a state-of-the-art music facility adjoining the Koger Center for the Arts. The university is located in the capital city, Columbia, a culturally vibrant metropolis that boasts a professional orchestra, ballet companies, theater companies and museums.

Assistantships and Stipends

Graduate assistantships are available for Studio Accompanying, Opera/Ensemble Accompanying, Piano Pedagogy and the Southeastern Piano Festival. GA positions in Piano Pedagogy include group piano instruction, teaching and administration in the Center for Piano Studies, and research. Positions, open to DMA and MM students, require an average of up to 16 hours per week and include a stipend of up to $8,100 and a tuition supplement of $10,550 (which covers approximately 9 credits per semester). For those who choose to enroll in the University-sponsored plan, health insurance premiums will be subsidized. Assistantships in Music History, Music Theory, Music Appreciation, and Facilities Management may also be available to qualified applicants.

To Apply

A pre-screen audition is required by December 1. Applicants must have been admitted into a degree program before full consideration of the assistantship application can be given. Priority is given to applicants who have submitted all application materials by February 1.
