

Music education designed to include all, inspire you and ignite your curriculum!

USC School of Music presents Music, You, Creativity and Community

In collaboration with Music for People's Art of Improvisation
and the NAMM Foundation

With guest appearance by neuroscientist
Dr. Charles Limb, Co-founder Sound Health Network

COURSE OPTIONS:

- Music, You, Creativity and Community with Art of Improvisation for NAMM and CMS members
- Art of Improvisation Workshop (no university credit)
- Graduate or Undergraduate Credits (3)
- CEU Certificate Workshop (3)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Musicians, beginners through professionals from any musical traditions, who desire musical renewal, mindfulness, and creativity in an energetic, humorous, open-minded environment will discover how to move beyond perceived musical limits while performing at the peak of personal technical and expressive abilities. Develop transferrable skills, techniques, and activities for fostering music independence, collaboration, and leadership among students of all ages (PreK-adults) to lead others in improvisational music engagements. Prior experience in improvisation is not necessary.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will be able to demonstrate practical application of methods and techniques based in music improvisation, responsive musicianship, social-emotional awareness, student leadership, community building, self-reflection and standards-based assessments.
