Global Direct Program

Maynooth, Ireland

National University of Ireland Maynooth

USC's direct enrollment program in Ireland is designed to expose students to the life and culture of the Irish people. This international opportunity is located in Maynooth, Ireland's only college town. Located just 15 miles west of the Dublin city centre, makes Maynooth town an ideal location for travel into the country's largest city and also to other international destinations.

Students will attend the National University of Ireland Maynooth. A hybrid of three centuries, Maynooth University boasts an old campus, South Campus as well as a new campus, North Campus. Maynooth town is home to a large variety of restaurants and enjoys a great social atmosphere. Maynooth Castle and Carton House are close by and offer an incredible look into Ireland's past. Only USC undergraduate students are eligible to participate in this program.

The program in Maynooth offers a variety of courses in the humanities, music, education, social sciences and STEM. Students attend classes with Irish students and other students from around the world.

All classes are taught in English with the exception of foreign language courses. This university is particularly suited to music students as certain required courses have been pre-approved for degree transfer.
