A BRIGHT LIGHT

Effects on Fatigue-Associated Symptoms and Quality of Life in Women with Breast Cancer

Fatigue is a major cancer-related symptom experienced by individuals with breast cancer who receive chemotherapy. Disrupted sleep/wake patterns often co-occur with fatigue and heighten symptom distress. Bright light therapy may have potential for mitigating the symptoms associated with this major cancer treatment.

To join the forum remotely, please visit https://zoom.us/my/nursing402.