

Orientation Assessment for New Hires

1. Piedmont Medical Centers Mission and Vision are to provide exceptional healthcare to every person we have the pleasure to serve and to be your premier health care system.
 - A. True
 - B. False

2. You are walking down the hall and notice a discarded candy wrapper on the floor-please choose the next appropriate action-
 - A. Push the wrapper out of the middle of the hall
 - B. Pick up the wrapper and dispose of correctly
 - C. Call someone else to pick up the wrapper

3. HIPPA means I can tell any family member about the patients test results
 - A. True
 - B. False

4. Your family member wants copies of her test results from our imaging department. Her doctor has not called with her results and she is so worried. She asks you to look up the results. What directions would you give her for properly obtaining her results?
 - A. Wait just a minute and you will look them up and call her right back
 - B. Pretend you are her and call imaging to request the results
 - C. Advise her to bring her ID to the Health Information Management office and request her records

5. Piedmont Medical Center's documentation policy states _____.
 - A. Any color ink is appropriate
 - B. Only the date is required
 - C. If your pen touches the patient's medical record, for any reason, you must sign/date/time it

6. A Code Red is called overhead. You recall the RACE and PASS method to fire safety. Please choose the correct statement for RACE and PASS
 - A. You should pass the fire and race out of the building
 - B. RACE stands for Rescue, Activate Alarm, Contain and Extinguish; PASS stands for Point, Aim, Squeeze and Sweep
 - C. RACE and PASS refer to methods only used by a Supervisor

7. You are unable to find a patient on the unit; you need to activate a Code Elopement. Which of the following is an appropriate next step?
 - A. Call the patients wife and ask if she has seen him
 - B. Call the police
 - C. Call 6666 to alert the Operator who will notify Security and make an overhead announcement to alert others to be on the lookout

8. Your role in Quality is to be an active participant, know and perform within your scope of practice/job description and delegate responsibilities appropriately and be familiar with hospital policies and standards and practice within them.
 - A. True
 - B. False

9. The number one most effective way to reduce the spread of germs and infection is _____.
 - A. Wearing gloves
 - B. Not touching anything
 - C. Washing your hands

10. Which sanitizer is appropriate for cleaning C-Diff or other infectious diarrhea?
 - A. Alcohol based sanitizer
 - B. Soap and water
 - C. Antibacterial lotion

11. Proper PPE (personal protective equipment) should be worn by staff when you take a patient from their room to the imaging department.
 - A. True
 - B. False

12. Cultural awareness is not important in healthcare because all patients are the same when they are sick.
 - A. True
 - B. False

13. You are taking care of a patient in soft limb restraints for the first time. What should you do?
 - A. Immediately seek the experience of your Clinical Supervisor should you receive a patient in restraints or have to place your patient in restraints
 - B. Try your best
 - C. Ask another nurse if she will take the patient

14. Fall prevention is a priority and Piedmont utilizes fall prevention alarm devices in an effort to decrease falls. Which of the following are fall prevention alarm devices used at Piedmont?
 - A. Bed Alarms, Chair Alarms and Care view Virtual Side Rail System
 - B. Call Bell System
 - C. Restraints and Seclusion

15. Piedmont has an on-line risk management event identification system called eSRM. Falls, present on admission wounds and behavioral events are examples of events that should be entered into the eSRM system. Which of the following are true statements about eSRM's?
 - A. eSRM's are optional for falls
 - B. eSRM events should be entered into eSRM on the shift the event/incident occurs or when it is discovered
 - C. Only the supervisor needs to complete an eSRM