

Academic Bulletin(s) and Code of Conduct Acknowledgement

Registration at the University of South Carolina assumes the students' acceptance of all published regulations, including those documented in the Undergraduate Studies Bulletin and/or Graduate Studies Bulletin <https://academicbulletins.sc.edu> as well as USC Policies and Procedures Manual <http://www.sc.edu/policies/policiesbydivision.php> maintained by the Office of the Provost http://www.sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/provost/index.php.

The academic bulletins are the official documents of record concerning undergraduate and graduate academic programs and regulations. These bulletins are for information purposes only and do not constitute any contractual agreement between a student and the University of South Carolina. The University reserves the right to make changes in curricula, degree requirements, course offerings, or academic regulations at any time when, in the judgment of the faculty, the president, or the Board of Trustees, such changes are in the best interest of the students and the University.

USC Policies and Procedures Manual is designed to provide you with information concerning the many policies, procedures, activities, and opportunities that exist at Carolina. These policies are identified by policy number and are located in their entirety and in their most current version at <http://www.sc.edu/policies/policiesbydivision.php>. The university reserves the right to change these policies and procedures without notice.

I understand that it is my responsibility to become aware of the contents of the Undergraduate Studies Bulletin and/or Graduate Studies Bulletin as well as the USC Policies and Procedures Manual.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

rev. 10/22