Top Articles:

Professional and personal experiences inspire behavioral therapist to become speech-language pathologist

Speech-language pathology graduate plans career helping individuals with traumatic brain injuries

U.S. News ranks speech-language pathology as third best health profession

Speech-language pathology graduate wins outstanding student award, plans career helping individuals with stroke, brain injury

Speech-language pathology assistant completes master’s from Canada through distance education program

Announcements:

Congratulations to the Montgomery Speech, Language, and Hearing Clinic which was voted Gold for Audiology Clinic and Bronze for Speech and Language Clinic in The State’s Best 2022!

Welcome to our new students admitted in 2022! In both the residential and distance education modalities, students started their graduate coursework over the summer and in the fall of 2022.

Congratulations to our UofSC_COMD class of 2022! Sixty-five students graduated in August between our residential and distance education modalities of the Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology program.
Speech-language pathology graduate hopes to work with pediatric and older adult populations

Special education teacher completes master’s degree to help children with early language, literacy challenges

Student completes second Arnold School degree to support children who are deaf or hard of hearing

August graduate focuses on neurogenic disorders throughout master’s program in speech-language pathology

August graduate completes distance education program to pursue career helping children as a speech-language pathologist

I am Public Health: Lynsey Keator

Congratulations to the 2022 COMD Student Award winners

It is with great sadness that UofSC_COMD said goodbye to audiologist and faculty member, Dakota Sharp. Dakota and his family have moved to North Carolina. We will miss you, Dakota!

We look forward to hosting our next Meet & Greet on February 11, 2023. Mark your calendars!

It is with great pleasure that UofSC_COMD welcomes new members to our faculty:

Meisam Arjmandi, PhD, Assistant Professor
Heather Armstrong, AuD, CCC-A, Clinical Assistant Professor
Lisa Johnson, PhD, Research Assistant Professor
Sigfus Kristisson, PhD, Research Assistant Professor
Erin Smolak, PhD, Assistant Professor
Casey Stromberg, MCD, CCC-SLP, Clinical Instructor

Congratulations to the 2022 COMD Student Award winners
Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion announces inaugural DEI awardees

Communication sciences and disorders professor Julius Fridriksson named Vice President for Research

May graduate to serve bilingual children with language/literacy challenges as speech-language pathologist

Two Arnold School faculty members win research services awards

Research suggests poor oral health may predict lower cognition among older adults

New COMD assistant professor Abigail Hogan focuses on anxiety, autism and how they impact communication

Study Sheds light on age-related vulnerabilities faced by women who carry FMR1 premutation

UofSC_COMD alum, Julia Porter, shares her own journey with head and neck cancer patients at Indiana University Health.

Alumni Highlight: Amy Douglass, MCD, CCC-SLP

Alumni Highlight: Jordan Zimmerman, MS-DE, CF-SLP

Alumni Highlight: Megan Cronin MSP, CCC-SLP, CLC, COMR

Alumni Highlight: Mackenzie Kamen, MSP, CCC-SLP

Alumni Highlight: James Blaida, MSP, CCC-SLP

Thank you, Amy Graham, for presenting to our graduate students on Complexity Approach in their Advanced Speech Sound Disorders class in the spring of 2022.

Our annual Meet & Greet event for our students and employers returned this year. Thank you everyone who was able to attend!
Recently Awarded Grants and Awards*:

Suzanne Adlof – awarded service award by UofSC for 10 years of service

Chari Birklid – awarded Outstanding Student Award for MS_DE class of 2022 by UofSC_COMD

Julius Fridriksson – awarded service award by UofSC for 20 years of service

Carrier Hendrix - awarded service award by UofSC for 10 years of service

Lynsey Keator – awarded a PhD Scholarship by the Council of Academic Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders

Jessica Klusek (Principal Investigator), NIH, Aging Symptom Trajectories in Mother Carriers of the FMR1 Premutation, July 2022 - March 2027: $2,900,521.

Gillian Marshall – awarded Magellan Scholar Grant ($3000). Abby Hogan is the mentor.

Juliana Miller - awarded service award by UofSC for 10 years of service

Jean Neils-Strunjas (Co-Investigator), Western Kentucky University and the Tennessee Department of Health, Bingocize®: An evidence-based health promotion program to improve the quality of life of Tennessee certified nursing facility residents, June - August 2022: $6,000.

Tegan Osborne – awarded “Most Promising Pediatric Clinician” ($500) by Chicago Speech Therapy

Jane Stratton – awarded Outstanding Student Award for MS_RES class of 2022 by UofSC_COMD

* Recent Grants and Publications from March 2022 – September 2022

Current UofSC COMD Faculty members are bolded

Current Students/Mentees are underlined
Recent Publications*:

Infographic summary. https://doi.org/10.17605/OSF.IO/8XYNF

